

Where have you seen this sign?

Jesus rode in to town on a donkey

He went to visit a temple

Holy and special place

But it was busy and bustling

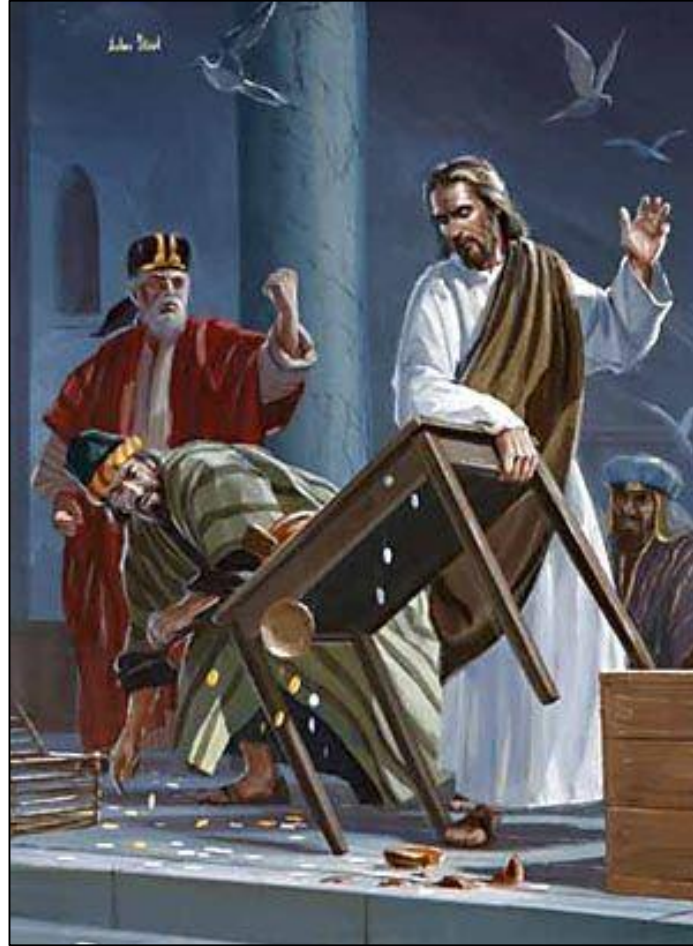

In the temple Jesus saw.....

He could hear shouting and arguing

He knew that a holy temple should not be like this

He went to each table and tipped them over

“Where is your respect for God’s holy place?’ This is God’s house, a place of worship for everybody and you have made it a den of thieves.

Jesus was angry because people were not showing respect for God's holy place and the people who worshipped there.

‘Everyone and everything should be valued
