

Geography Knowledge Organiser: Year 2

Summer 1 – Uganda

What we already know:

- The names of the continents and oceans of world.
- The equator splits the earth in half.
- Both the Sahara desert and Antarctica experience extreme temperatures.

Key Vocabulary:

- Village, town, city
- Uganda
- Kampala
- Africa
- World
- Rural
- Village
- Homes
- Population
- Environment
- Equator
- National Park
- Sahara desert

What we are going to learn:

- All villages around the world share the same human features but could have different physical features based on where they are in the world.
- Most of Uganda is north of the equator but the equator also runs through it.
- Africa is just south of the Sahara desert.
- Kampala is the capital city of Uganda.
- Both the cities of London and Kampala similar physical and human features.
- Queen Elizabeth Country Park and Queen Elizabeth National Park are twinned and have similarities and differences.
- There are lots of similarities and differences between Uganda and the

What we are going to learn next time:

- The key physical and human characteristics of countries and major cities.
- The land-use patterns in the UK and understand how some of these aspects have changed over time.
- The geographical similarities and differences through the study of human and physical geography of a region of the United Kingdom, a region in a European country and a region within North or South America.